

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE PROCESS SUMMARY

Judicial Council of British Columbia

WHAT WILL JUDICIAL COUNCIL ASSESS?

CONSIDERATIONS

CIVIL CLAIMS OR JUDGMENTS

Judicial Council is prepared to consider the application of an applicant involved in a civil claim or proceeding if, after receipt and review of the details of the claim or proceeding, Council is of the opinion that the nature of the claim or proceeding does not reflect on the applicant's fitness for appointment to judicial office. Civil claims would include if you foresee commencing or defending any litigation in the foreseeable future (i.e. because you have received or issued a demand letter or you otherwise know of a possible claim against you or because you are aware of a possible claim that you have against another party).

PARTY OR WITNESS

You will be asked if you have ever been a party or witness in any type of tribunal or court proceeding and, if so, to provide the tribunal/court file number(s), registry(ies), and case citation(s), if available.

FINANCIAL AND OTHER MATTERS

Applicants must inform Judicial Council of any outstanding civil judgments or arrears in family support payments, and any past or present proposals to creditors or assignments in bankruptcy.

You will also be asked if there is anything in your past or present, including disciplinary letters or disciplinary actions from the workplace, that could reasonably reflect negatively on you or the reputation of the court.

CRIMINAL RECORD AND OTHER SEARCHES

A criminal record, driving record, and credit check will be reviewed.

EXPENSES

Applicants are not reimbursed for any expenses incurred in connection with the application.

WHAT HAPPENS AFTER I RECEIVE A JOB OFFER THAT REQUIRES A JP COMMISSION?

APPLICATION/REFERENCES

A court manager contacts the Justice of the Peace (JP) Administrator at the Office of the Chief Judge when their court location requires a CSJP appointment.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE PROCESS SUMMARY

Judicial Council of British Columbia

The candidate submits an online application to the Judicial Council for appointment as a JP. When the application is received, the JP Administrator at the Office of the Chief Judge reviews it and obtains reference letters, a criminal record check, a credit history and a driving record.

REPORTING CHANGES

An applicant must promptly report any changes to their application to Judicial Council, including but not limited to personal suitability information, such as financial, health/medical, and if no longer seeking appointment. Failure to report changes may disqualify an applicant from consideration for appointment.

INTERVIEW/EXAM/RECOMMENDATION

The Regional Administrative Judge in the relevant region interviews the candidate. The applicant must successfully complete the JP basic training course and the final examination. The Judicial Council then considers the complete application and forwards the names of recommended applicants to the Attorney General for consideration for appointment by the Lieutenant Governor in Council (the Lieutenant Governor acting on the advice of the provincial Cabinet).
